

Program Management Professional (PgMP)

Three Days or Six Half Days

Overview

Program Management Professional (PgMP)® is a credential offered by the Project Management Institute (PMI®) to individuals who successfully qualify for the PgMP® exam. It certifies individuals as having the requisite experience in program management, and it demonstrates their competency to oversee multiple related projects to achieve the organisation's strategic goals

Who Should Attend

- Project managers, Senior Managers, Project Team Members responsible for project planning, execution, and deliver
- VP's/AVP's, PMO consultants
- Anyone leading a large-scale project

Prerequisites

- Program Managers with a total of eight years which includes four years of project management and four program management experience
- Meet eligibility requirements (Refer to the PMI Handbook)
- Complete application of program management experience.

Delivery Mode/Training

- Face to Face or Online
- Three full days or six half days
- Suitable time zones for - USA, UK, Europe, Middle East, India, Malaysia, Singapore, Hong Kong, Australia and New Zealand.

Topics Covered

- Program Definition
Program Formulation, Initiation and Planning
- Program Delivery
Program Execution and Controlling
Monitoring program performance
- Program Closure
Component Transition Management
Program Health checks
Roadmap for setting up and operationalising PMOs

After Attending The Program, Attendees Should be Able to

- Apply Program management terminologies and concepts
- Apply International Program Management Standards from PMI® (the PMBOK® Guide) to real-world situations for successful results.
- Provide faster solutions to clients and ensure open communication between stakeholders and team members.
- Lead and motivate the team to perform better
- Ensure compliance, reduce risk factors and save on time and costs
- Attempt a first-time pass of PMI's Program Management Professional (PgMP)® Certification Exam